Course Description

Graduate Seminar (1 credit) Grading Scheme: S/U

Course Pre-Requisites / Co-Requisites

None.

Course Objectives

The Graduate Seminar for the Department of Industrial and Systems Engineering (ISE) consists of a series of presentations generally fitting within the scope of ISE or developing adjacent skills. The three types of seminars are: (1) the frontiers of ISE research including faculty job candidate talks, (2) research-related training, and (3) professional development.

By the end of this class, students will learn to

- describe broad cutting-edge research trends in ISE, both within and beyond their own particular interest.
- explain basic use of presented research-related tools and skills.
- interact professionally with speakers.

Materials and Supply Fees

None.

Required Textbooks and Software

None.

Recommended Materials

None.

Attendance Policy, Class Expectations, and Make-Up Policy

Attendance is required and may be taken any time, including as early as the first two minutes of class or within the last two minutes of class. As grading is based on attendance, per the grading policy below, absences can lead to not passing the class. You should inform the instructor(s) at least 24 hours in advance of any absence.

Please be courteous to the speakers. In addition to arriving at or before the start of the class, please do not speak during the seminar except when invited to ask questions. Please generally direct your focus on the speaker and avoid excessive attention to electronic devices. If you are participating virtually, then you are highly encouraged to turn on your video, as this will create an engaging and collaborative environment for the speaker and other seminar participants, but keep your microphone muted unless directed otherwise.

Excused absences must be consistent with university policies in the Graduate Catalog (<https://gradcatalog.ufl.edu/graduate/regulations>) and require appropriate documentation. Additional information can be found here: <https://catalog.ufl.edu/UGRD/academic-regulations/attendance-policies>.

Course Schedule

The schedule is offered as a guide and subject to change. You are expected to attend class sessions at the usual time and location unless that seminar has been explicitly canceled. The latest schedule can be found at <https://www.ise.ufl.edu/news-events/events/scheduled-seminars>.

Evaluation of Grades and Grading Policy

A passing grade will be given if a student has at most two unexcused absences throughout the entire semester. There is no homework, and there are no exams or quizzes.

More information on UF grading policy may be found at: <https://gradcatalog.ufl.edu/graduate/regulations>.

In-Class Recording

Students are allowed to record video or audio of class lectures. However, the purposes for which these recordings may be used are strictly controlled. The only allowable purposes are (1) for personal educational use, (2) in connection with a complaint to the university, or (3) as evidence in, or in preparation for, a criminal or civil proceeding. All other purposes are prohibited. Specifically, students may not publish recorded lectures without the written consent of the instructor.

A “class lecture” is an educational presentation intended to inform or teach enrolled students about a particular subject, including any instructor-led discussions that form part of the presentation, and delivered by any instructor hired or appointed by the University, or by a guest instructor, as part of a University of Florida course. A class lecture does not include lab sessions, student presentations, clinical presentations such as patient history, academic exercises involving solely student participation, assessments (quizzes, tests, exams), field trips, private conversations between students in the class or between a student and the faculty or lecturer during a class session.

Publication without permission of the instructor is prohibited. To “publish” means to share, transmit, circulate, distribute, or provide access to a recording, regardless of format or medium, to another person (or persons), including but not limited to another student within the same class section. Additionally, a recording, or transcript of a recording, is considered published if it is posted on or uploaded to, in whole or in part, any media platform, including but not limited to social media, book, magazine, newspaper, leaflet, or third party note/tutoring services. A student who publishes a recording without written consent may be subject to a civil cause of action instituted by a person injured by the publication and/or discipline under UF Regulation 4.040 Student Honor Code and Student Conduct Code.

University Honesty Policy

UF students are bound by The Honor Pledge which states, “We, the members of the University of Florida community, pledge to hold ourselves and our peers to the highest standards of honor and integrity by abiding by the Honor Code. On all work submitted for credit by students at the University of Florida, the following pledge is either required or implied: “On my honor, I have neither given nor received unauthorized aid in doing this assignment.” The Honor Code (<https://sccr.dso.ufl.edu/process/student-conduct-code/>) specifies a number of behaviors that are in violation of this code and the possible sanctions. Furthermore, you are obligated to report any condition that facilitates academic misconduct to appropriate personnel. If you have any questions or concerns, please consult with the instructor or TAs in this class.

Commitment to a Safe and Inclusive Learning Environment

The Herbert Wertheim College of Engineering values varied perspectives and lived experiences within our community and is committed to supporting the University’s core values, including the elimination of discrimination. It is expected that every person in this class will treat one another with dignity and respect regardless of race, creed, color, religion, age, disability, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity and expression, marital status, national origin, political opinions or affiliations, genetic information, and veteran status.

If you feel like your performance in class is being impacted by discrimination or harassment of any kind, please contact your instructor or any of the following:

- Your academic advisor or Graduate Program Coordinator
- HWCHE Human Resources, 352-392-0904, student-support-hr@eng.ufl.edu
- Curtis Taylor, Associate Dean of Student Affairs, 352-392-2177, taylor@eng.ufl.edu
- Toshikazu Nishida, Associate Dean of Academic Affairs, 352-392-0943, nishida@eng.ufl.edu

Software Use

All faculty, staff, and students of the University are required and expected to obey the laws and legal agreements governing software use. Failure to do so can lead to monetary damages and/or criminal penalties for the individual violator. Because such violations are also against University policies and rules, disciplinary action will be taken as appropriate. We, the members of the University of Florida community, pledge to uphold ourselves and our peers to the highest standards of honesty and integrity.

Student Privacy

There are federal laws protecting your privacy with regards to grades earned in courses and on individual assignments. For more information, please see: <https://registrar.ufl.edu/ferpa.html>

Campus Resources:

Health and Wellness

U Matter, We Care:

Your well-being is important to the University of Florida. The U Matter, We Care initiative is committed to creating a culture of care on our campus by encouraging members of our community to look out for one another and to reach out for help if a member of our community is in need. If you or a friend is in distress, please contact umatter@ufl.edu so that the U Matter, We Care Team can reach out to the student in distress.
